YOUNG JOB SEEKERS ATTEND THE MAYOR'S YOUTH OPPORTUNITY SHOWCASE AT THE KENTUCKY INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION CENTER

LOUISVILLE, KY (February 7, 2014) – The Mayor's Youth Opportunity Showcase will bring employers and young adult job seekers together on Saturday, Feb. 15. Last year more than 2,000 people ages 16-21 attended the showcase looking for employment.

More than 30 vendors are expected at the Kentucky International Convention Center event this year including T.J. Maxx, UPS, Baptist Healthcare, Home City Ice, YMCA of Greater Louisville and Walmart. Representatives from local colleges, universities and career training programs will also be on hand to talk to about career planning.

The showcase is open from 10 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. in Exhibit Hall 1AB and is free for both job seekers and employers. Youth planning to attend the workshop must register online at <http://www.kentuckianaworks.org> by February 12 to be admitted to the event. Attendees interested in applying for jobs should dress for an interview, bring identification and have several copies of their resume to leave with potential employers.

About the Kentucky International Convention Center

The Kentucky International Convention Center offers two public parking garages for visitors. The KICC (Cowger) Garage is located at Fourth and Market Streets. The KICC (Commonwealth) Garage is located on Jefferson Street between Third and Fourth Streets (next to the Hyatt Regency Hotel).

With 300,000 square feet of space, the convention center accommodates a wide variety of events. KICC has 200,000 square feet of prime exhibit space including 145,000 square feet of contiguous, column-free areas. Accompanying the exhibit halls is a 30,000 square foot ballroom and 52 meeting rooms - all under one roof. The convention center's interior is complemented by a landscape of exposed brick, sawtooth skylights and a striking terrazzo floor that winds through the lobbies illustrating many of Louisville's signature landmarks.
